

Underwriter Assistant

Looking for a career in a finance-oriented field?

We are looking for a motivated individual to join our Underwriting & Claims Department at Trade Risk Guaranty (TRG). This unique position offers the right candidate the opportunity to learn how TRG, the market leader in providing U.S. Customs bonds directly to importers, manages risk and works with importers to develop their understanding of U.S. Customs' regulations and the products that TRG offers. This position allows you to build relationships with clients across the United States.

Are you an analytical thinker looking to put your skills to work?

A successful Underwriting Assistant is motivated to learn, analyze, think outside the box, and build positive, long-standing relationships. Exceptional attention to detail and a customer-centric outlook are also important qualities for this position; being able to educate and communicate successfully with our clients in a professionally assertive way is critical.

In this position with TRG, you will have the opportunity to gain in-depth knowledge of the trade industry and be challenged to communicate this information to our clients. Our goal is to educate and empower importers to improve compliance while establishing TRG as an indispensable resource. If you're ready to join our team with a fast-paced, growing company, check out our website at TradeRiskGuaranty.com to learn more.

Availability: Immediate Opening
Employment type: Part Time (20-25 Hours/Week)
Compensation: $14.00/Hour
Hours: Monday – Friday, 4 – 6 Hours Per Day
